In The Still

Here, your laws have been written on my heart
Not in the battle but in the still
Not when faced with death, but when I kneel
When my breathing is slow and
When I'm all alone
It's then you make yourself be known.

To the rhythm of my beating heart
You're scribing promises of light
To the silence of my mind
You've bound up truth, where there once bore lies
You've cleared my ears, which were clogged with fears
You spoke and all my doubt eloped
You erected your temple and made my body your home
In the still

Between the pages of your end from your beginning
You ploughed a space for me
In Christ's grave you planted a seed
Because it was always your heart to raise me
In the still

Through the cold, dark earth you were whispering nutrients of love
Calling me up, calling me above
In the still

Through the dampness of regret
Through if, when, why, and not yet
In the still

When the soil had crushed my will
When to live it meant to yield
In the still.

"I am.."
THE SEVEN "I AM" STATEMENTS OF JESUS

In the Gospel of John, Jesus draws on this story in Exodus and gives us seven names to call him, seven "I Am" statements. Throughout this series, we will be looking at who Jesus is through the lens of each "I Am" statement.
